Val di Fassa, Italy Group Ski Trip!

February 26th to March 8th, 2010

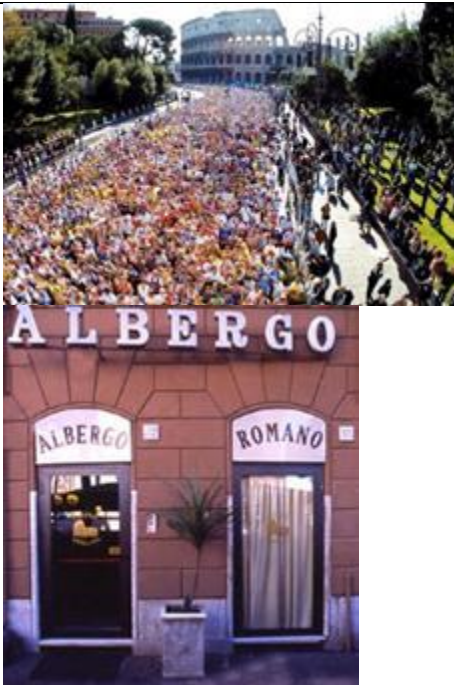

Ski at different area every day, including Alpe di Lusia, Latemar, Arabba, Passo San Pellegrino, and the Sella Ronde, 26km of fully lift-serviced downhill skiing on the slopes surrounding the Sella mountains, including the Val Gardena downhill run. You will seldom ski the same run more than once. Stay in MOENA - a beautiful small Ladin town, ideally situated in the centre of Val di Fassa with Vigo di Fassa, Pozza di Fassa and Canazei a few km north and Cavalese a few km south. There are more than 120 ski lifts around the valley, and the resort altitude is 1300m. The highest peak is 3284m, longest run 6km and vertical drop 2060m. There are more than 250km of marked downhill ski runs, nearly all with snowmaking, rated 40% easiest (blue runs), 45% intermediate cruising (red runs) and 15% more difficult (black runs). In addition, the area has over 100km of cross-country trails, many with snow-making and track setting. After 6 days of skiing we will spend 2 nights in Rome on the way home.

March Break

Let ADVENTOURUS help you put together a fabulous ski trip to Colorado where the great mountains are. If you want warm weather, how about kayaking in Belize? Trips start at $1600 per person, land only and based on availability. This is the second busiest travel season of the year, so don't leave it until the last minute.

Maratona di Roma March 21, 2010

Visit one of the worlds' most romantic cities, known for the best food in the world...and if you run the marathon, you can eat as much as you want!

Run past such famous sites as the Coliseum, the Vatican City and the Basilica di San Paolo!

ADVENTOURUS can help you put a great package together, including all the details, and maybe some touring around it.

Join ADVENTOURUS at the Outdoor Adventure Show; find out about the Old Roman Roads Ride

Next September 29th, Jacqui Snyder of ADVENTOURUS and Peter Donato of MyNextRace.com are leading an epic bike trip from Rome to Venice. Approximately 600k over 10 days with time to enjoy the sites and food. Peter rode this in September past and will tell you all about it at the Outdoor Adventure Show on Friday February 26th at the International Centre.

Support ADVENTOURUS in the GIRO TO May 30th 2010

Giro TO Sunday May 30th...Cycle around Toronto in the shape of a boot with rest stops at various Italian places like restaurants, cafes, seniors homes. We are served various Italian foods and beverages. Funds support Villa Charities which in turn support varying needs of their communities including the elderly and developmentally challenged. This will also be used as a springboard to promote our tour from Rome to Italy taking place in late September.
